

എംടി അനുസ്മരണം

On January 1, 2025, a gathering of students from the Malayalam department, accompanied by their instructor Mrs. Feba Samuel, convened in the Malayalam optional classroom at BNV College of Teacher Education in Thiruvallam. This assembly was organized to pay tribute to the illustrious M.T. Vasudevan Nair, affectionately known as 'MT', a towering figure in the realm of Malayalam literature and cinema. The event, aptly named 'Prayaga', served as a heartfelt homage to the iconic writer, who left this world on December 25, 2024, at the venerable age of 91.

The ceremony was a rich tapestry of remembrance, weaving together various elements that celebrated MT's extraordinary life and contributions. Attendees engaged in thoughtful discussions that delved into his biography, exploring the milestones that defined his illustrious career. They highlighted the multitude of accolades he received throughout his life, which underscored his profound influence on the literary landscape of Kerala and beyond. The conversations also included insights into his most cherished literary works, which have left an indelible mark on the hearts and minds of readers across generations.

As part of the tribute, the students and faculty united in reciting a pledge in MT's honor, a collective affirmation of their commitment to uphold the values and ideals he championed through his writing. This moment was further enriched by a solemn pause, during which everyone observed a moment of silence, reflecting on the significant impact MT had on Malayalam literature and cinema. It was a time for introspection, allowing attendees to contemplate the legacy he left behind and the inspiration he continues to provide.
