The programme coordinator of RHAPSODY 3.0 was Nadeem Surfid.N, Assistant Professor, BNVCTE and student coordinators were Gayathri S.S and Bindhya of English optional. Principal Dr. Lakshmi ma'am and other teachers and audience were present for attending the poetry day celebrations.

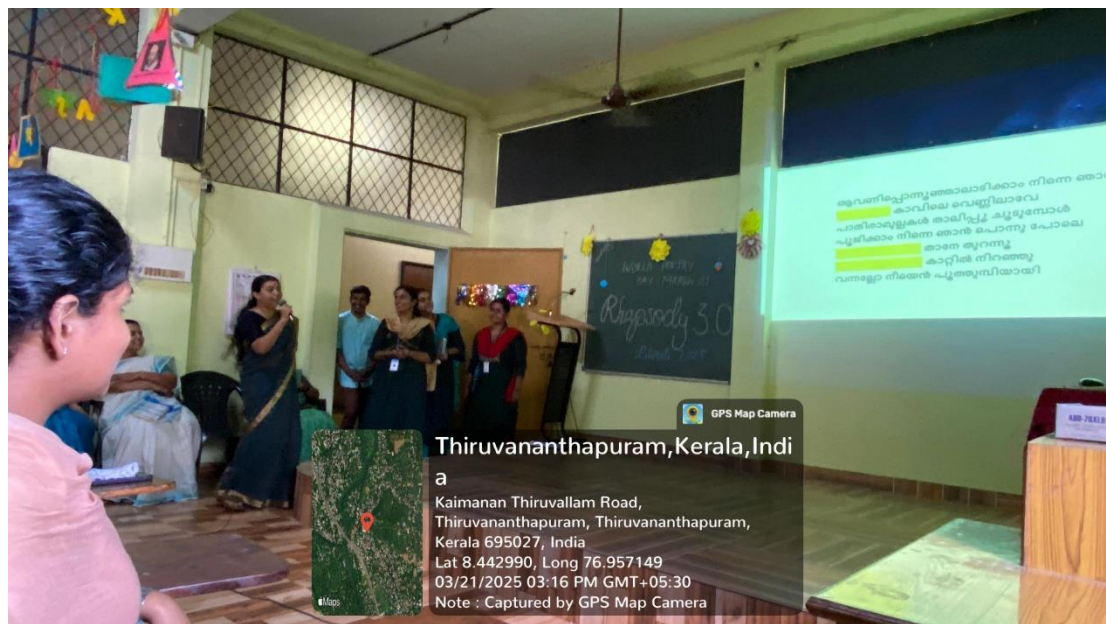

The event aimed to promote love for poetry, encourage creative expression and provide a platform for students to showcase their literary talents. The programme started by 2:30 pm at our ET lab. Anakha M K delivered the welcome speech followed by prayer dance by Sanika .

Then a presentation based on poetry day was conducted by Nisha M Shani. After that, a recitation was recited by Roshna ma'am and the poem was written by herself and composed by her student. Next, a fabulous mono act by Dhanya based on the atrocities faced by the girls which made us triggered by a wide range of emotions.

Then a quiz competition was conducted based on the presentations done by Nisha. Audience actively participated including our esteemed teachers. After that an interacting game session was conducted based on filling the missing lyrics of a cinematic music. Everyone including teachers were thrilled in participating in that session. Then a recitation of a poem of Murukan kattakada was done by Aswathy ma'am and it was also superb. Audience got the opportunity to recite poems, so that Anupama teacher, Neha , sumayya , Lakshmi were recited poems.

The session was concluded by Lakshmi teacher who gave us some suggestions about our association programme. The winners of the intercollegiate poetry writing competition which was conducted by the English association as a part of world poetry day “MERAKI” was announced by Sanika, the programme coordinator of MERAKI. Vote of thanks was delivered by Anjana and the programme signed off with the National Anthem.

Audience interestingly participating in the programme.
