The Human Rights forum Aawazz of BNV College of Teacher Education hosted an inter-collegiate digital poster-making competition in Connection with ‘Vimukthi ‘centred around the thought-provoking theme “Break the Chains – Be Drug-Free.” This initiative aimed to encourage students to express their thoughts artistically while raising awareness about the significance of leading a life devoid of addiction. The event was meticulously coordinated by Mrs. Rekha L R, Assistant Professor BNVCTE , who took on the role of program coordinator, ensuring that all aspects of the competition ran smoothly. Additionally, Gayathri R. M., a committed student from the English Optional, served as the student coordinator, effectively managing communications with participants and overseeing the submission process. Several students from different colleges of Kerala participated in the competition. After a thorough evaluation of the diverse and impactful entries submitted by students, the winners were ultimately announced, celebrating their creativity and commitment to advocating for a drug-free lifestyle.

First Prize- Karthika B S from Christ Nagar college, Thiruvallam

Second Prize – Aiswarya S from FMTC, Pallimukku

Third prize - Ancy Anil R J from SNGK B. Ed college, Pothencode
