The Social Science Association Heritage of BNV College of Teacher Education, Thiruvallam, Thiruvananthapuram, in collaboration with IQAC, organized an inter collegiate online essay writing competition titled “Maunasandesah” as part of the Gandhi Jayanthi celebrations on October 2nd, 2025.

The competition aimed to commemorate the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi and to encourage young minds to reflect upon and uphold Gandhian values in contemporary society. The topic for the competition was “Emerging Youth and Gandhian Values.”

Participants from various colleges were invited to submit their handwritten essays in either English or Malayalam, adhering to specific guidelines. Essays were to be handwritten, scanned, and submitted in PDF format via email to socialscienceheritage2025batch@gmail.com or through WhatsApp (+91 70129 38043). Each essay was restricted to a maximum of two sides of an A4 sheet. The last date for submission was October 6th, 2025.

The event saw enthusiastic participation from students across different institutions. The essays reflected deep insights into the relevance of Gandhian values such as truth, non-violence, and self-reliance in the lives of today's youth.

Lakshmi K S of social science department PTM college of Education maruthoorkonam ,Balaramapuram was awarded first prize.

The programme was successfully coordinated under the guidance of Dr. Lakshmi S. (Principal and General Convenor), Mrs. Rekha L. R. (Assistant Professor and Programme Convenor), and Ms. Aiswarya R. Nair (Student Coordinator).

The event not only celebrated Gandhi Jayanthi but also inspired students to embody Gandhiji's timeless principles in their personal and social lives.
