

BNV College of Teacher Education
SUPW and Craft Exhibition – KALAKRITI

An academic programme “SUPW and Craft Exhibition – Kalakriti” was organized by 2025–2027 B.Ed Batch of BNV College of Teacher Education, Thiruvallam, in association with the IQAC. The programme was conducted on 17 September 2025 at 11.30 AM in Seminar Hall II of the college.

The programme aimed to promote creativity, artistic skills and the importance of Socially Useful Productive Work (SUPW) among teacher trainees. The exhibition provided an opportunity for the students to showcase their innovative craft works and creative talents.

The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Meerakumari G, Academic Director. In her inaugural address, she emphasized the importance of creativity, skill development and productive work in teacher education. She also appreciated the efforts of the students in organizing such an exhibition that promotes practical learning and artistic expression.

Dr. Lakshmi S, Principal of BNV College of Teacher Education, graced the occasion and she highlighted the role of craft activities in developing creativity, patience and aesthetic sense among future teachers. She also congratulated the students for organizing the programme successfully.

The exhibition displayed a variety of attractive craft items such as handmade decorations, recycled material crafts, creative teaching aids and artistic models prepared by the students. The programme created a lively and enthusiastic atmosphere in the campus.

The craft works were evaluated by Mrs. Shiny Pratap, Assistant Professor, and Mrs. Aswathy S, Assistant Professor, who served as the judges for the programme. They carefully examined the exhibits and appreciated the creativity and effort put forward by the students.

Faculty members and students visited the exhibition and encouraged the participants. The programme became a valuable learning experience for the teacher trainees by enhancing their creativity, cooperation and organizational skills.

The exhibition concluded successfully with appreciation from the faculty members and students.

