The bottom section has a white background with a stack of books on the right and lists the "PROGRAMME OF THE DAY": Prayer by Ms. Neha S, Welcome speech by Ms. Gayathri VS (Member of BNV Service Squad), Principal's Remark by Dr. Lakshmi S (Principal, BNV CTE), Introducing Tick Talkers by Dr. Azif Muhammed A (Founder, Tick Talkers), Official Signing of MOU, and Book Donation. A Vote of Thanks is given by Mrs. Sanjana Sabu B S (Member of BNV Service Squad).

The BNV College of Teacher Education organised a meaningful event titled “Book Donation Campaign – 2025” on 19th August 2025 at 9:30 a.m. The programme was conducted as an IQAC initiative in collaboration with Tick Talkers, a Kerala-based youth organisation, and coordinated by the BNV Service Squad.

The programme commenced with a prayer by Ms. Neha S, followed by a warm welcome speech delivered by Ms. Gayathri V S, a member of the BNV Service Squad. Her words set the right tone for the event, emphasising the significance of spreading knowledge through books.

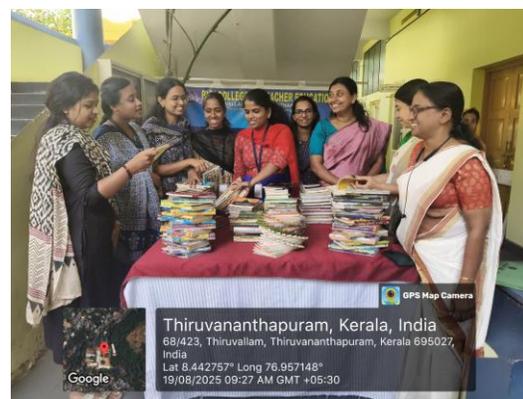

The Principal of BNV College of Teacher Education, Dr. Lakshmi S, addressed the gathering with insightful remarks. She highlighted the importance of book donation as a noble act that nurtures education, encourages reading habits, and contributes to the empowerment of the community.

Following this, Dr. Azif Muhammed A, Founder of Tick Talkers, was invited to introduce his organisation. He shared the vision and mission of Tick Talkers, which is dedicated to promoting youth participation in social initiatives, particularly those that focus on literacy and community development.

The day's highlight was the official signing of the Memorandum of Understanding between BNV College of Teacher Education and Tick Talkers, marking the formal collaboration for the book donation initiative. This symbolic act reinforced the commitment of both organisations towards fostering education and making books accessible to those in need.

The programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks delivered by Mrs. Sanjana Sabu B S, another member of the BNV Service Squad. She expressed gratitude to the dignitaries, participants, and all those who contributed to the successful conduct of the campaign.

Overall, the Book Donation Campaign – 2025 was a resounding success. It not only encouraged students and staff to contribute to the cause but also strengthened the spirit of service and collaboration. The event stood as a reminder that books are powerful tools of change, and donating them is a simple yet impactful way to spread knowledge and inspire future generations.
