

BLOOD DONATION CAMP REPORT

A Blood Donation Camp was organized by BNV College of Teacher Education, Thiruvallam, in collaboration with PRS Hospital, Killipalam, BNV Service Squad, and Pamphilos the Alumni Association of the college, was successfully conducted on August 20, 2025, as part of an IQAC initiative.

The inaugural ceremony commenced at 10:00 a.m., anchored by Namitha, second-year Physical Science Optional student. Prayer was led by Neena S Raj of English Optional. The gathering was addressed by Mrs. Rekha L. R, the IQAC Coordinator. Dr. V E Krishna Mohan sir then delivered an insightful session on the values of blood donation. The talk was informative and emphasized the significance of blood donation and encouraged individuals to become regular donors. By donating blood, individuals can make a significant difference in their community and contribute to saving lives.

The Academic Director, Dr. G Meera Kumari honored Dr. V. E. Krishna Mohan, Head, Department of Pathology, PRS Hospital, Dr. S Lakshmi, Principal, BNVCTE, honored Dr. Abhisha with a memento and an honorary shawl. The vote of thanks was proposed by Reshma, a first-year student.

Following the inaugural session, the blood donation camp commenced. Members of the Alumni Association and faculty were the first to donate, followed by first- and second-year students. A total of 34 donors came forward for the noble cause, although a few were unable to donate due to low haemoglobin levels. The eligibility criteria for donors had been communicated in advance by the hospital. With the dedicated support of the Program Coordinator, Mr. Nadeem Surfid N., all arrangements for the camp were made effectively.

The medical team comprised two doctors, four staff nurses, five blood bank technicians, and three coordinators from PRS Hospital, Killipalam, who ensured the smooth functioning of the camp. Refreshments were provided to all donors as a token of appreciation.

The camp concluded successfully by 12:30 p.m., after which the hospital team departed post-lunch. The event stood out as a meaningful initiative, instilling in students the spirit of social responsibility, compassion, and service to humanity.
