

BNV COLLEGE OF TEACHER EDUCATION THIRUVALLAM

The Independence day celebration at BNV College of Teacher Education, Thiruvallam, held on August 15, 2026, was a magnificent display of patriotism, unity and institutional pride. The event brought together the entire college community including the management, faculty, members and the complete B.Ed and D.El.Ed student body along with their respective professors.

The program officially began at 8.45 am. The college chairperson Sharanya. U started the morning with a warm welcome speech. Following her speech the Managing Director of the BNV Group of Educational Institutions Shri.A.Suresh, performed the ceremonial flag hoisting.

As the tricolor flag was raised high, everyone stood in proud salute. Immediately after, the second year B.Ed students from commerce department beautifully led the entire gathering in singing the National Anthem, Jana Gana Mana. Another major highlight of the day was the Independence Day message delivered by Meharaj.R.K., a first year student of the B.Ed program. She gave an inspiring speech about how young educators can use the power of education to protect India's freedom and fight social evils, emphasizing the vital role of teacher in fostering constitutional values and national integration among future generations.

After the formal functions the B.Ed and D.El.Ed students presented colorful patriotic songs and dances. The entire cultural session was anchored smoothly and confidently by Aditya, a B.Ed physical science student, who kept the audience engaged throughout the morning. The first-year D.El.Ed students, who presented a moving patriotic group song led by Soorya and followed it up with a vibrant group dance routine led by Devika. The second-year D.El.Ed batch kept the artistic energy high, presenting their own melodious patriotic group song alongside a graceful solo dance performed by the student Asiya.M.H.

The talent of the B.Ed batches added further brilliance to the celebratory atmosphere. The first year B.Ed. students added structural variety to the schedule, with the Commerce and Physical science departments teaming up to deliver an impactful educational roleplay. This was complimented by individual patriotic group songs from both the English and Malayalam departments, and a combined departmental dance performed together by the Maths and Social Science students captivated the audience with an energetic fusion dance, alongside a soulful patriotic group song by the Malayalam department and another moving song choice by the Social Science department.

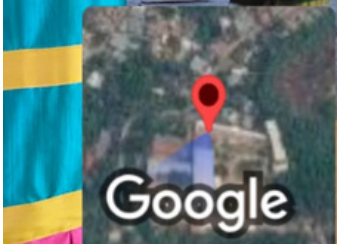

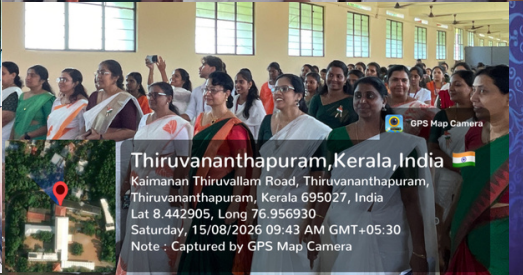

As the program drew to a close, the college Students General Secretary, Saandra.V.Senan delivered the official vote of thanks, expressing sincere gratitude to the management, faculty and everyone who contributed to making the day a grand success.

Following the vote of thanks, the principal, Dr. Lakshmi.s took the stage to offer her remarks and talk about the overall program. In her speech, she praised the students and staff for putting together such a well-organized and meaningful celebration. She encouraged the student-teachers to carry the patriotic spirit they felt today in to their future classrooms. The celebration finally ended on a sweet note with the traditional distribution of laddoos to everyone with fond memories and a renewed commitment to serving the nation through education.

The smooth execution of the entire celebration was made possible by the dedicated leadership of the General Convenor, Principal Dr.Lakshmi.S., alongside the meticulous planning of the program coordinator, Assistant Professor Feba Samuel. Ground level operations, student discipline, and program participation were excellently managed by the student coordinators, which included Meharaj.R.K. and Saandra.V.Senan for the B.Ed program, alongside Aswathy.C. and Abhija.V.S. for the D.El.Ed. program.
